Only a Win Will Do

Gateshead's Andy Fenwick and Ryton's Lee Tindall head to Otterburn ranges this weekend in the their Skoda Octavia WRC

A year on from the event last year which saw the debut of the Skoda, Andy remembers the event well, we were going into the unknown with the Octavia but surprised ourselves with being fastest on all 7 stages until a minor lapse in concentration saw him forget to switch the diff map on the car at the startline of the 8th stage, 1/2 mile in and no friction to the rear causing the rear to lock and unable to stop for a chicane, the Skoda hit it hard and dropped off the road.

Never again will that switch be forgotten, we have unfinished business on the Cheviot, joining the crew this weekend will be the top National Tarmac Championship competitors with 3 crews in with a chance to win the championship on the final event of the season Steve Simpson (Hyundai WRC), David Knyaston (Audi A3) and David Mann (Subaru WRC), so the pace will be fast from the word go, also in the mix will be the two Metro 6R4's of John Stone and Mark Jasper now running as a two car team and sharing knowledge of the powerful supercar they cannot be discounted, but missing will be John Price unable to win the Championship John has decided not to tackle the event he has won many times in the past, shame as we look at him still to be the the one to beat on Otterburn.

With 13 stages and 115 competitive miles in very unpredictable weather this will be a challenge to all the crews, but only one thing is getting talked about in the workshop of the Skoda team this week "Only a Win Will Do".
